5. Procedure

5.1 Summary

The three stages of RVTS’s internal process for the reassessment of specified decisions are:

- (1) Reconsideration – by the same RVTS Body that made the decision
- (2) Review – by nominees of the RVTS Board or CEO that oversees the RVTS Body which made the original decision
- (3) Appeal – to an Appeals Committee appointed by the RVTS Board.

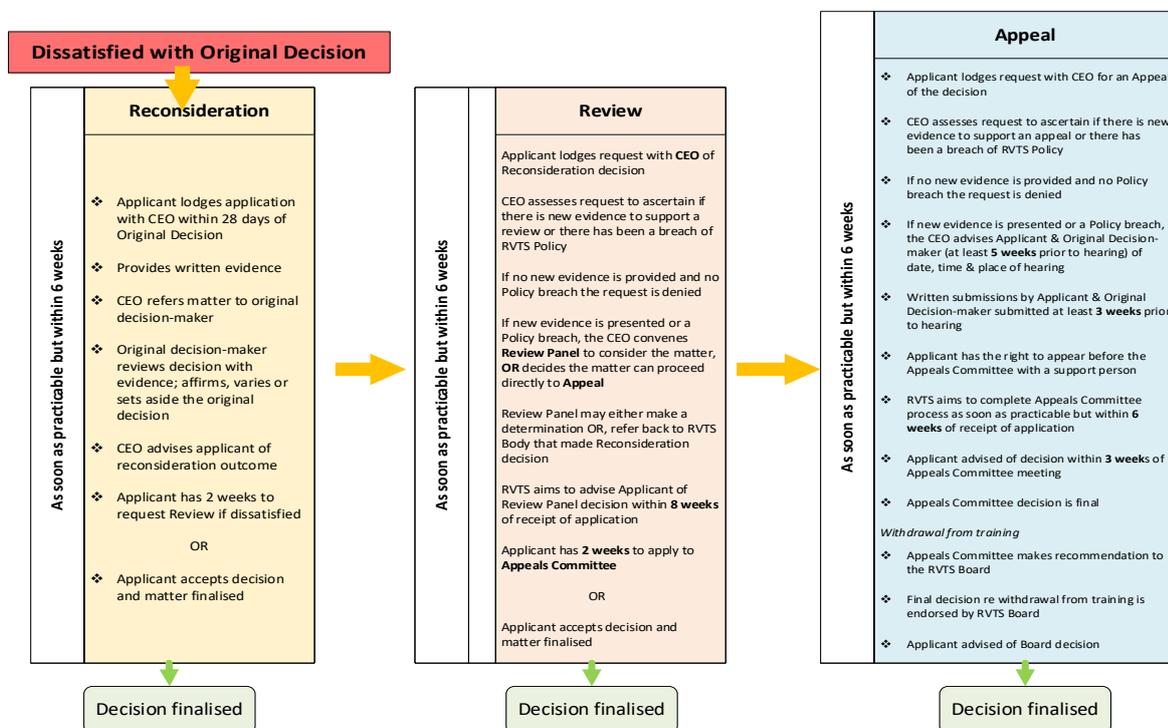

Each of these stages involves a Review 'on its merits'. This means that the relevant decision maker is required to reassess all of the facts and circumstances relating to the decision, including any additional material provided by the Applicant or otherwise obtained by the decision maker and make a new decision or further substantiate the original decision.

NB: Only one application for each of reconsideration, review or appeal may be made in respect of an original decision.

5.2 Copies of information

An applicant may request copies of information on which the original decision was based. The RVTS will provide such information within two (2) weeks of receipt of a written request, subject to obligations of privacy and confidentiality which may apply.

5.3 Process Flowchart

6. General Principles

6.1 Decisions subject to Reconsideration, Review and Appeal

- (1) The following original decisions of the RVTS may be reconsidered, reviewed or appealed:
 - (a) the assessment of performance and progression of RVTS registrars
 - (b) selection to or withdrawal from RVTS training
 - (c) recognition of training or prior learning (excluding the outcome or results of the assessment of either RACGP or ACRRM written or clinical examinations)
 - (d) applications for special consideration in relation to the RVTS's training program and its processes
 - (e) requirements for remediation under the Registrar in Difficulty Policy
 - (f) decisions arising out of the complaints process
 - (g) accreditation of training sites, teaching centres or supervisors of training
 - (h) other decisions of the RVTS or its Board that may from time to time be permitted or determined as a Decision for the purposes of this policy.

- (2) This policy is not intended to provide an avenue for any person (s) to contest ACRRM or RACGP results awarded, decisions of assessors taken in or about any assessment, allegations of poor training or supervision or general grievances.

- (3) This policy is not intended to provide an avenue for any person (s) to be exempted from any requirements or components of any RVTS training program on the basis of ignorance of relevant published regulations and/or policies.

6.2 Grounds for Reconsideration, Review or Appeal

Under this policy, there must be demonstrable evidence, provided at the time of application, of one or more of the following grounds relating to the outcome of a decision that is the subject of the Appeal application. That:

- (a) an error in due process or due process occurred in the formulation of the original decision
- (b) the relevant approved regulation or policy was not correctly applied
- (c) procedures required by approved RVTS policies or regulations to be observed in connection with the making of the original decision were not observed
- (d) relevant and significant information, whether available at the time of the original decision or which became available subsequently, was not considered or not properly considered in the making of the original decision
- (e) irrelevant information was considered by the original decision-maker in the making of the original decision
- (f) the original decision was made in accordance with a rule or policy without regard to the merits of the particular case
- (g) the original decision was clearly inconsistent with the evidence and arguments put before the body making the original decision

- (h) the original decision was made for a purpose other than a purpose for which the power was conferred, or by a body that was not empowered to make the decision.

6.3 Acceptance of applications

- (1) The CEO of the RVTS reserves the right not to accept an application for Reconsideration, Review or Appeal where the applicant is unable to produce any reasonable or relevant evidence in support of the stated grounds for Appeal.
- (2) On receipt of an application for Reconsideration, Review or Appeal as described below, the CEO shall not initiate the Reconsideration or Review processes, or convene the Appeals Committee, until he or she is satisfied that the relevant application establishes prima facie grounds for Appeal.
- (3) Where the CEO is satisfied that a prima facie case does not exist, the applicant will be advised in writing, stating the reasons for not accepting the application. An applicant has 20 business days to provide a final submission addressing the deficiencies notified by the CEO. If in the opinion of the CEO a prima facie case is still not established, the right to Reconsideration/Review/Appeal in accordance with this policy will be denied.
- (4) The CEO has the discretion to allow the process to commence at the 'Review' stage or to proceed directly to the Appeals committee where he or she is satisfied that there are exceptional circumstances which make it justifiable and appropriate to do so.
- (5) The CEO may delegate his/her powers and duties set out in this policy as he/she determines.

7. Stage 1: Reconsideration

7.1 Activation of Reconsideration

7.3 Conduct of Reconsideration

- (2) The applicant does not have the right to attend any meetings of the original decision-maker or to make any oral submissions to it, either personally or through any other party.
 - (3) Applications for reconsideration of a decision will be considered by the RVTS Body responsible for making the original decision or a subgroup of that entity as deemed appropriate by the CEO of the RVTS Body in question and having regard to the circumstances of the matter at issue. The CEO may elect to consider the request without reference to any other member of the applicable entity. Where this occurs, the matter shall be reported to the entity at the next scheduled meeting following the reconsideration.
 - (4) The RVTS Body reconsidering the decision in question may exercise all of the powers and discretions that the entity was able to exercise when it made the original decision, and is not subject to the rules of evidence. - (2) Where applicable, the review panel must not take into account evidence of further training, supervised practice or experience by the applicant obtained during the period between the making of the original decision and the review of that decision.
- (3) The applicant does not have the right to attend any meetings of the review panel or to make any oral submissions to it, either personally or through any other party.
- (4) The review panel may exercise all of the powers and discretions that the original decision-maker was able to exercise, and is not subject to the rules of evidence. Subject to the rules of procedural fairness and except where otherwise provided by clause 6, it may inform itself as it sees fit.
- (5) The Review Panel may refer the matter to the RVTS Body that made the decision or reconsideration decision for further consideration in accordance with any directions or recommendation of the Review Panel.

- (6) The CEO may determine that an application for Review should proceed directly to an Appeal if:
